

TAX PROTESTS BY FARMERS SWAMP COLLECTORS

CC farm bureau
hires full-time
tax expert

Cook County Farm Bureau is adding a service to its members—expert tax service. While it is a service designed only for its members, it will probably benefit all tax payers by forcing economy measures on local taxing bodies. Those operating within municipalities, will, of course, escape.

Fit evidence that the farm bureau is going to interest itself in tax matters came to light in April when representatives attended local township meetings.

PREPARATION of protests by the Farm Bureau and willingness to press the protests through the courts, was revealed last week by the mass of protests that accompanied tax payments by farmers.

The third bit of evidence that the farmers mean business came this week by the announcement that the Cook County Farm Bureau had hired a GI, a Mr. O'Brien, as tax expert who will give full time service to tax matters—a sort of a watch dog of public funds.

Mr. O'Brien has been especially trained and has taken a post-graduate course in Detroit business school.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding of the position of the farmers, Louis W. Pohlman, president of the Cook County Farm Bureau made the following statement Wednesday morning to Paddock Publications.

"IN ESTABLISHING a tax service for Cook County farmers, the Farm Bureau's purpose is not a general protest on paying taxes. It is, however, a means whereby we expect to point out where the tax payer's money is being wasted. We do believe some of the things people are asking the government to do are unessential. We believe efficient government officials should be commended for their service. We know our ability to pay taxes will decline and economy is necessary. Most of our property taxes are spent locally, and our method will be to employ a man who will work with local tax paying committees who represent the tax payers in making budgets that will fit the needs of the communities and the community's ability to pay. We will employ local self government methods in tax matters."

Eight more men have been added to the ranks of Arlington's own National Guard unit during the past two weeks. They are: Arthur B. Hansen, Robert E. Schaffer, Daune S. Overton, Donald C. Mueller, Roger D. Ho, Gordon W. Stadel, William F. Revers, and Donald R. Neumann.

The unit, which started five weeks ago with just three men, now numbers 22 recruits and two officers. Regulation clothing is coming through and all men in the unit at present should have their complete outfits by June 1.

Four rifle classes are in progress to prepare Company M for the range at Camp Logan in Zion June 18-19. A company party was held at the armory at 216 N. Dundon ave., Saturday, which provided a good time for all attending. Further get-togethers like this are being planned for the future.

Ratings in the unit are still open to qualified men, and even men who have no prior service will have a chance for rapid advancement. Veterans and non-veterans may obtain further information at the National Guard office at 216 N. Dundon, daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., or Tuesday evenings during the weekly drill period from 8 to 10 p. m.

Remodeling of the old A&P store, which is now the Guard's headquarters, is in progress. The new layout will have the drill hall and locker space in the center section, with offices and orderly room in front, and storeroom and supplies in the rear. It should be completed by June 7 and all weapons and equipment should arrive by June 15.

Wanta play railroad?

Local residents have grown accustomed to the many surprising articles advertised in our want-ads.

To prove our point, this week's ads contain a railroad station for sale.

Bids are being accepted for the old Palatine C&N.W. station. If you need a home or plan on starting a railroad on your own, our ads offer the opportunity.

Grade school to graduate 82, June 8

Address by Chicago Methodist pastor; commencement dinner on June 6

N. M. Lattot, president of Arlington Heights elementary school board will present diplomas to 82 graduates of the North school Wednesday, June 8. The class will be presented to him by Supt. R. E. Clabaugh.

The address will be given by the Rev. John Paul Stafford, Jr., pastor of the Joyce Memorial Methodist church of Chicago. It will not be Rev. Stafford's first appearance in Arlington Heights as a speaker. "An address given at a boy scout dinner here two years ago ear-marked him as a future commencement speaker," Mr. Clabaugh told his board. Those who had the opportunity of hearing him at that time agree with the school superintendent that he had made a wise choice.

REV. STAFFORD has a personal interest in this area as he is a graduate from Palatine high school, which he attended when his father was pastor of the Methodist church at that place a number of years ago. Since then Stafford has gained a reputation as not only a pastor, but also as a public speaker.

The sixth grade chorus will give two numbers. The event will be held in the high school auditorium, admission to which will necessarily be by invitation.

THE GRADUATION dinner will be in the north school auditorium Monday, June 6. It will be served by the cafeteria staff and a group of mothers, the chairman being Mrs. Andrew Sim and Mrs. Mary Creviston.

An added interest in elementary school affairs by the general public has been noticeable this year, coming to the fore at the time of the recent election when approval was given to a bond issue for additions to both schools.

Those additions will not be ready for school use until the fall of 1950, but recognizing the interest of school patrons, the Herald will keep readers informed as to the progress of the plans and construction work.

With definite approval of the project, the architects are now drawing detail plans and frequent consultations are being held with the school board and superintendent to insure that the new buildings be as near perfect as possible.

Graduates of the public elementary school are:

Robert Lockwood, retiring president, turned over the list of needs for the area, which include signs, pavement of Kennicott st., and sidewalks on Oakton st.

The group again plans to cut the weeds in the northwest district, a job they have taken over since they were organized. Plans are also being made to increase membership and to appoint women to serve on committees now organized.

New advisory group
organizes, tackles
dump and trailers

The newly appointed advisory committee to Arlington Heights village board organized last week with N. M. Lattot as chairman and William E. Sauer as secretary.

The group confined discussion to two major matters that confront the village board, the village dump and house trailers.

Special sub-committees were appointed to study existing village ordinances, with instructions to report back to the advisory group within a week.

Chairman Lattot assured Mayor Albert Goedke, who was present, that a definite recommendation would be ready for presentation at the June 6 village meeting. Also sitting in on the deliberations of the committee Tuesday night were Village Attorney Thal and Village Clerk Forrest Davis.

James E. Wood, W. E. Sauer and Chas. L. McCoy are gathering facts and material regarding the village dump. The investigation on trailers is in the hands of W. C. Walters, C. M. Teutsch and Chas. Wilson.

Her husband testified at the inquest Tuesday, held at the Lzaueer funeral home, Northbrook, that his wife was in apparently good spirits when she left the house. She asked her husband to put the cow to pasture while she cut some rhubarb.

Returning to the house, Mr. Werhane went in search of his wife, finally finding her body. The gun used was rusty and had laid in a bureau drawer of the house for eight years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in Oakwood cemetery.

C. of C. begins
membership drive
here this week

The Chamber of Commerce of Arlington Heights will officially launch its membership drive this week as a result of a meeting held by the membership committee Monday evening.

Carl Baylor, chairman of the committee, will be assisted by George Schneberger, Mrs. Muriel Mundy, Vernon Hagenbrink, Dr. E. W. Baumann, George Poole and John Kehe. Other workers who will be active in the drive but who were not at the meeting are Joe Lohr, Wilbert Hartmann and Paul Taege.

DUES FOR membership in the Chamber of Commerce is $25 a year, which will include all fees connected with the 10-point program of the Chamber of Commerce recently printed in the Herald. The organization has prepared mimeographed sheets outlining the program. Some of these points, naturally, will be termed long range projects, such as the new depot and post office, while others will be accomplished in the near future.

A certain Arlington Heights merchant stated that one of the strong points of the program was the fact that the Chamber of Commerce planned to curb organizations and individuals from soliciting and asking for contributions repeatedly throughout the year.

The Chamber of Commerce has kept its membership fee as low as possible in order to enable all merchants, no matter how large or small a business they operate, to obtain a membership. Merchants are asked to remember that the organization can only be as active as its financial budget will allow.

MAJOR PURPOSES of the membership group are to develop the interest and cooperation of the members, to sell specific projects, to enlighten the members on local policies, and to develop public opinion.

A naturally prosperous and growing community calls for balance between business, industry, agriculture and community spirit. The Chamber of Commerce plans to make notable steps of progress in the business, civic and industrial spheres of activity in Arlington Heights. Remember, by being a member and by serving on committees, merchants will make this possible. A strong, well organized, well administered Chamber of Commerce can, and will promote this town to its fullest extent.

Those merchants who find it impossible to "drive" the band wagon can at least get in and "ride" by giving their financial support to this program of men and ideas in action.

Chief Skoog and several officers of the Arlington Heights police force escorted a group of 45 high school seniors and teachers through Stateville penitentiary Tuesday evening.

Fox hunting may become major sport

Gene Heller came back to town last Wednesday with the pelts of six foxes. He got them down Elk Grove way, but refuses to tell exactly where. "It's like having a private hunting lodge," explained Gene as he told Walter Krause of the number of foxes that are in and about forest preserves.

Walter came back with a story about two rabbits who eat his vegetables as fast as they come up above ground until last Sunday when two shots ended two lives.

Scarsdale has so many rabbits that gardens are difficult. Gene suggests that the resident therein import a fox or two who will handle the rabbits.

Complaint has come from a nurseryman—not against rabbits—but against plant disease that is allowed to be rampant in the preserves and threaten adjoining nursery stock.

Go on strike against illegal levies;
stress economy by taxing bodies

Tax protests on the part of 1500 members of the Cook County Farmers and Gardeners Assn. and several hundred members of the Cook County Farm Bureau is serving notice to all taxing bodies that the tillers of the soil are doing more than just asking for economy on the part of local taxing bodies. They are preparing to ask the courts to come to their tax relief.

Practically all members of the CCTG paid their first installment of 1948 taxes through the office of the truck gardeners' association. Secretary Steil visited the offices of local tax collectors early this week delivering checks and asking for receipts on the first installments.

Collector McGregor, of Park Ridge, estimates that while many of the truck growers in Maine township paid both installments under protest, the first installments paid through the association amounted to $30,000.

In Elk Grove township the figure is about $9,000. Palatine, on the edge of the trucking area, paid only $2400. Wm. Annen, Wheeling township tax collector, received $10,400 under protest by truck growers.

THE FARM BUREAU operated under a different plan. Their attorneys, Lawlor & Walsh made a study of tax rates, and levies of all local taxing bodies. They prepared a schedule of portions of levies which they thought were questionable, furnishing the farm bureau office with the figures.

Farmers electing to use the service were provided with protest letters pointing out the particular objections. The tax payer armed with the protest letter paid his own taxes.

The attorneys will defend the protests. The entire T-B Sanitarium tax is protested by this group throughout the county. Amount of protest items prepared for farmers of Wheeling township are:

Units participating and order of march are:

Police escort lead, Arlington Heights, VFW, Legion and Firemen.

Each unit will carry their own colors.

CEREMONIES at Memorial Park will include invocation by Rev. Milo J. Vondracek, Memorial address by L. J. Knoepfel, Roll call, placing of wreaths, Firing Squad and Taps, closing with a benediction.

Following benediction, all units will proceed to Euclid ave. cemetery by motor where special military rites will be observed. Graves of all soldiers having previously been decorated with flowers.

Guid Post will hold a special ceremony at the grave of Merle, first soldier from Arlington Heights to fall in line of duty during World War I. VFW post will do the same at the grave of Comrade Oselefin, first soldier of VFW post 981, to die.

CITIZENS OF Arlington Heights who have flowers in their yards or gardens are asked to donate some for the decoration of graves Memorial Day.

The flowers, which will be greatly appreciated by auxiliaries of the Arlington Heights VFW and American Legion, who are preparing the bouquets, should be left at the north door of the American Legion hall, corner Douglas and Miner street between 4:00 and 7:00 p. m. Sunday, May 29.

S. Greshner, commander of VFW asks business houses to display the national emblem, a practice that was followed many years.

Redwings to play Sunday and Monday

Rain has cancelled the last three scheduled games of the Arlington Redwings, local semi-pro baseball squad, but the Heights nine has lined up two games for the holiday weekend.

Berwyn is slated to come to town Sunday while DeKalb Teachers will oppose the local team Monday. Both games start at 3 p. m. at Recreation Park just north of the water tower in Arlington Heights.

John A. Rogers, former brigadier general and chief surgeon of the First Army in the last war, will speak on "The Crusade Against Cancer" at a public meeting of the Northwest Suburban chapter of the American Cancer Society, Wednesday, June 8. The local chapter will meet at the Mt. Prospect village hall at 8 p. m.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in All Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 22, was:

SOUL AND BODY
The Golden Text was:
"The light of the body is the eye; if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light."

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon, the following were from the Bible:
"Be ye not unequally yoked together, with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? . . . And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people" (II Cor. 6: 14, 16).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"TEMPLE, Body; the idea of Life, substance, and intelligence . . . Because of human ignorance of the divine Principle, Love, the Father of all is represented as a corporeal creator; hence men recognize themselves as merely physical, and are ignorant of man as God's image or reflection and of man's eternal incorporeal existence. . . . The one Ego, the one Mind or Spirit called God, is infinite individuality, which supplies all form and comeliness and which reflects reality and divinity in individual spiritual man and things" (pp. 595, 13, 281).

St. James patrol boys given merit awards, pins

Patrol boys of the Arlington Heights St. James Catholic school were honored for their splendid work and service records last Friday at an assembly of students from the third through the eighth grades.

With just a few weeks to go the boys are working hard to maintain their record of no accidents or injuries to children while they were at their posts.

For some of the boys it meant the last year of patrol work as they will graduate in June. All of the graduating patrol boys received an "Award of Merit" certificate. The following boys received a Patrol boy service pin with a three year service bar attached: Jerry Moreth, captain; Donald Clark, lieutenant; Joseph Rezek and Norbert Sargeant. Two year service bars went to John Glueckert, lieutenant, Paul Mitsch, Francis Lyons and Wayne Hesch.

TEN BOYS received one year service pins. They are: Paul Schaefer, Francis Matt, Anthony Raef, Tom Harting, Robert Rankin, Larry Taylor, James Hopper, Teddy Bakalar, Richard Amann, and Phillip Wintergerst. At the same program the seventh grade students received their junior Red Cross card for their studies on safety and first aid. According to their answers on the safety quiz they are well posted on the subject.

FATHER STIER addressed the assembly and stressed the importance of safety in work and play. Officer Oscar Johnson,

NW scout council finds it needs $6300 by camp date

Fifteen members of the Northwest Suburban Council Executive Board met in the council chamber of the Des Plaines Municipal Building May 17, to discuss urgent business pertinent to opening the summer camp at Wild Rose, Wisconsin. During the discussion, several problems presented themselves, the main one being the raising of funds to cover the cost of $2500.00 for kitchen equipment, $1200.00 for sewage disposal, $1600.00 for steel pier and $1000.00 for electrical fixtures.

The above items must be in camp by the time it opens to receive Scouts on July 5. The Executive Board agreed to put on a 10-day campaign, from May 17 to May 27, to raise the money necessary to open the camp. Contributions may be sent to Boy Scout Headquarters, 100 S. Prospect avenue, Park Ridge.

Camp will open July 5 to serve 80 Scouts in each of three 2-week periods. The camp fee was set at $2.00 per day per camper. It was decided to make bus transportation available at $7.00 per camper for the round trip. Application cards and camp bulletins are in the hands of Scoutmasters.

THERE HAS BEEN some discussion of changing the name of the lake on which the summer camp is being built. The Executive Board of the Council approved the name of "Lake Napowan," which means "clear water." This name was submitted to the Waukegan County Commissioners in Wisconsin, and a

St. Peter members to aid 2 million dollar Lutheran education drive

Lutherans of St. Peter church, Arlington Heights, are preparing for participation in a nationwide effort to raise $2,000,000 which will be used for construction of new buildings at colleges and seminaries operated by the Lutheran church, Missouri Synod.

The greater part of the fund will be raised by 5,000 churches in this synod, located throughout the United States and Canada, in a special offering on Pentecost Sunday, June 5.

Concordia college at River Forest will be one of the schools to benefit from this project. Concordia prepares students of this region for teaching positions in Lutheran parish schools.

This will be the first large fund raising project for capital improvements at educational institutions of the Missouri Synod since 1925. Major expenditures of the church body during the last decade have been devoted to wartime service to armed forces personnel, to foreign and domestic mission activities, and to postwar relief abroad for which an estimated $15,000,000 members of the synod since 1945.

In addition to replacement of obsolete buildings, the new program calls for eventual expansion of the existing educational facilities at 12 colleges and seminaries to provide a minimum of 200 candidates annually for the Lutheran ministry, and a minimum of 476 graduates annually prepared to teach in the synod's expanding system of 1204 full-time elementary schools.

who has been working with the patrol boys, also talked to the group. He congratulated the boys on their fine work and presented the awards and service pins.

He pointed out that being safety conscious during vacation time was just as important then as it is now.

Faith church to have Ascension day and confirmation this week

Faith English Lutheran church of Arlington Heights is commemorating the ancient Festival of the Ascension of Our Lord in a special service at the Arlington Heights field house tonight, Thursday, at 8 p. m. This custom is universal in the Lutheran countries of Europe, in which the holy day is observed as a public holiday with elaborate Ascension morning festival services. In this country many rural churches have morning worship on this day, while in the cities the observance, as a rule, has been shifted to an evening service.

Faith church extends an invitation to the community to receive the blessings of the Ascended Lord by worshipping Him tonight at its festival Vespers.

Next Sunday the 1949 Confirmation class of Faith church will be presented to the congregation at the service which begins at 10:45 a. m. A feature of the service will be the examination of the class in the basic teachings of the Bible in preparation for their admission to the Lord's Supper. A special invitation is extended to the sponsors and friends of the children.

104 Heights patrol boys entertained at Cub game

All Arlington Heights patrol boys, totaling 104, were entertained Wednesday afternoon at Wrigley field, where they watched a baseball game between the Chicago Cubs and New York Giants. Their good time was highlighted by the Cubs winning 3-2.

The patrol boys come from the North and South public, Lutheran and Catholic schools. They were escorted to the game by Chief Herb Skoog and Officer Oscar Johnson. Also making the trip were Albert Wangels of the South school, J. C. Clemans of the North school, K. L. Busse of the Lutheran school, and Father Richard Rosemeyer of St. James.

Passes for the game were issued through the courtesy of the Chicago Cubs baseball club, with only 25 cents tax being due on each admission. Each boy was given 50 cents to buy refreshments during the afternoon. Geisen Motor Coach furnished two

Honors day assembly at high school

Students of Arlington Heights Township high school will assemble next Thursday to receive recognition of services and accomplishments for the school year 1948-49.

One of the popular assemblies at the high school is the annual honor day assembly. Many non-athletic awards and certificates are presented at that time, which is an anti-climax to the school's activities. In addition to the assembly Bill Minshall, a senior in the AHTHS, will present his color slides taken of the Rose Bowl parade and other activities on New Year's Day in Pasadena. A highlight of the program will be a presentation by Mr. Perkins of the Westinghouse corporation of the plaque won by Versilia Bohrer.

Her archaeological exhibit was a winner in the recent Science Talent Search sponsored by the Science clubs of America for the Westinghouse corporation, who are joint sponsors of this affair. Miss Bohrer, a senior in the AHTHS, was chosen as one of the forty outstanding young scientists in the United States in 1949. This plaque will be presented to the school and Miss Bohrer will be honored.

Parents and friends of students are invited and urged to attend this honor assembly which will begin at 2 p. m.

Cancer drive reaches quota

Suburban fund raising efforts by the Illinois Division of the American Cancer Society are a 100 per cent success, Sherman J. Sexton, general chairman of the organization's 1949 campaign, announced. The Suburban Division raised $100,045 to exceed its $100,000 goal.

Announcement of the suburban achievement was made at the Illinois Division's final campaign report meeting at which volunteer leaders for all divisions in the drive declared contributions totaling $572,262, nearly 50 per cent of the state goal of $1,150,000.

Thirty-one towns in the suburban area went over the top in their individual campaigns and two communities, Lake Forest and Winnetka, have contributed better than $1 per capita.

Bensenville, goal $300, raised $631.

Itasca, goal $175, raised $241.

K. R. Whitton and Walter Kirchhoff open offices at Mt. Prospect

The modern business block at 6 and 8 Northwest Highway, Mt. Prospect, has been admired for some time by passersby. This week the public is finding that the interiors with their modern furnishings merit still greater praise.

The official opening of both stores is being held this week. Electric signs tell the world that K. R. Whitton, Inc., specialists in suburban real estate is located at No. 6, where Kirchhoff Insurance Agency and Mt. Prospect Herald also have quarters.

Mr. Whitton is probably the first realty firm in this area who can supply a possible buyer with instant pictures of a piece of property. He is using the Polaroid Land Camera by which he can snap a picture of any portion of the house that the buyer may decide to take away with him. Development and printing of the picture requires only one minute.

Walter Kirchhoff has been engaged in the insurance business for some time and the establishment of the office will be additional service to his patrons.

The opening of a Mt. Prospect office by Paddock Publications has been considered for some time and will enable the publishers to keep in closer contact with Mt. Prospect people.

Women folk of this area will find the Charm Center at 8 Northwest Highway a distinctive shop where beauty culture will include the sale of the Elaine Revell cosmetics. Blouses, lingerie and hosiery can also be purchased. The proprietor is Iva Craig. Bert Myers is the hair-stylist.

1950 FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE AT A SAVINGS 1949

What a well planned Meat Department means to you!

JEWEL DIDN'T jump into the self-service meat business. It took months of planning, testing, and laboratory research before the first Jewel self-service market opened in Elmhurst. Even then new problems arose and were quickly corrected. Three months later Jewel opened its second self-service market in Barrington, and shortly after a third in LaGrange. Now, after nine months of practical operating experience, and continuous research, Jewel offers Arlington Heights one of the most efficient and well planned self-service markets in the country.

PACKAGING in sanitary, protective cellophane does not improve the meat, nor does it harm the meat. Pre-packaged meats at Jewel are the same top quality Extra Value Trim meats that have pleased Arlington Heights home-makers for so many years. The pre-packaging process completely protects the freshness and quality from the time the meat arrives at your Arlington Heights Jewel, to the moment you place it in your home refrigerator. You can't beat the quality and freshness of Jewel meat anywhere!

PRE-PACKAGING at Jewel is designed to protect your family's health. The meat arrives in refrigerated trucks and is immediately placed in refrigerated coolers. It is cut up in temperature controlled rooms. It is sealed in sanitary, protective, DuPont Cellophane in an air conditioned pre-packaging room. You can see for yourself that this room is spotless — as clean as your own kitchen.

FOR DEPENDABLE meats and careful handling, you can shop with complete confidence at your Jewel self-service meat department — one of the finest in the land!

Woman's club asks defeat of 'no home permanent wave' bill

The board of directors of Arlington Heights Woman's club this week went on record as opposed to Illinois Senate bill 305, directed against home permanents.

The action was taken in accordance with a written request from Illinois Federation of Women's clubs asking local club members to write senators and congressmen requesting the withdrawal of defeat of this bill.

"This is a matter of real concern to all women of Illinois," President Marguerite Tuttle stated, "for a special group is putting its selfish business interests above those of all the women of the state."

It should be one of the civic duties of every woman to write her state congressman or senator, she said, asking that the bill be killed.

The federation letter stated in part: "The beauticians will probably point out they are suffering a loss of business due to the home kits. By the same token, if such an argument prevails, laundries eventually could prevent you from doing your washing at home, restaurants could obtain laws to stop home cooking, etc."

"It is up to the women of Illinois to act and act quickly. . . Bring this matter to your club as a whole. . . They can write their own senators and possibly Senator Edward P. Saltiel, 3318 N. Lake Shore drive, Chicago, and Senators Fribley and Griffin."

Mt. Prospect theater

Life is going to be easier next fall for Mt. Prospect movie fans, when a new theater will be completed on Main street near Central road according to present plans.

They have looked forward to this event for over two years, ever since Walter Wischstadt of Bensenville purchased the site and secured a permit for the building, only to have government restrictions on materials delay construction.

When Donald Blaine Ozmund and bride return from their honeymoon being spent in Cuba, they will be at home in Evanston. The bride, the former Louise Berry, is the daughter of the Davis Berries, 471 Hawthorn Lane, Winnetka. The groom is the son of the Donald Osmunds of Mt. Prospect. Their wedding was an event at Winnetka Congregational church, May 5.

St. John building fund benefits from card party

Arlington Heights field house was filled Friday evening with enthusiastic players supporting the card party given by the Evening Guild of St. John's Episcopal church of Mt. Prospect.

The master of ceremonies for the evening, Allan Armstrong, introduced the Guild's president, Mrs. Robert Geddes, who spoke a few words of welcome and then introduced the Seminarist-in-charge, D. Sanford Duncombe, who told of the progress that the Parish is making toward the erection of a new rectory.

Proceeds of the party is going toward the building fund. Many awards were generously donated by merchants and friends of St. John's. Mrs. R. Geddes, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. F. Sargent, and Mrs. W. Colmar, assisted by all the members of the guild, solicited the prizes.

Mrs. Richard Lambert and her committee should be commended for the attractively served refreshments. Mrs. T. Williams and her committee, who arranged the tables for bridge and other games, also did a fine job. ## American Legion Auxiliary notes

The regular business meeting of the Merle Guild Unit No. 208, the American Legion Auxiliary of Arlington Heights, will be held at Legion hall June 7. Election of officers for the coming year will be on the agenda.

Members of the Auxiliary are invited to attend Memorial services to be held Sunday at the Methodist church, at 11 a. m.

Flowers for grave decorating on Memorial day are needed. If citizens having flowers would bring them to Legion hall before 7:30 Sunday evening it would be greatly appreciated by the VFW and American Legion auxiliaries. Volunteers from these patriotic organizations will prepare the bouquets.

Sunshine mingled with flowers added zest to the social meeting of the Auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. Clare Hayden May 17. Fourteen members had a royal good time and enjoyed the hospitality showed them by their hostess.

Merle Holtz brought her costume jewelry to the meeting and did a thriving business. Anyone in need of birthday or graduation presents should look over this jewelry.

LaVergne Schaeffer and William Mueller wed

Community Camera

Miss LaVergne Schaeffer and William H. Mueller were united in holy wedlock at the Palatine Immanuel Lutheran church last Saturday. The nuptial service was read by Rev. E. H. Behrens as the couple stood before the altar banked with baskets of white gladioli and feverfew.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus H. Schaeffer of Arlington Heights, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mueller of Des Plaines, formerly of Arlington Heights.

"O Lord Today We at Thine Altar Stand" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung during the ceremony by Mrs. Elmer Kirchhoff, accompanied on the organ by E. Setzer.

Miss Schaeffer was given in marriage by her father. Her ivory satin gown was fashioned with round marquisette yoke trimmed in seed pearls, and a long train. A seed pearl trimmed headband held her finger-ring veil in place. The bridegroom's gift of a three strand pearl necklace and a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis completed her attire.

Maid of honor was Miss Ruth Clausen, who wore an aqua tissue taffeta gown and carried a colonial bouquet of rainbow carnations. She also had on a rhinestone necklace, which was a gift from the bride. Miss Phyllis Engelking and Esther Remus were bridesmaids and were dressed in yellow and pink tissue taffeta respectively, with the same accessories as the maid of honor's.

Flower girl was Susan Frank, niece of the bridegroom. Her dress was of orchid taffeta and she carried a basket of carnations. Richard Cuttione, nephew of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer.

Best man for Mr. Mueller was Melvin Harting, with Edward Praefke and Orville Schaeffer, brother of the bride, acting as ushers.

Mrs. Schaeffer chose to wear an aqua mesh dress for her daughter's wedding, while Mrs. Mueller was gowned in a dusty rose crepe dress. Both had glamelia corsages.

A reception for 350 guests was held following the ceremony at the Wheeling gym. The entire wedding party and immediate families were entertained at dinner on the Wednesday preceding the wedding. Among the guests at the reception were the bride's grandfather, Henry Schaeffer, and the bridegroom's paternal grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Mueller are honeymooning in Detroit, Michigan and Canada for two weeks. Upon their return they will be at home at 1554 Thacker, Des Plaines.

Mr. and Mrs. James Colvin entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace and their children, Ned and Bobby, of Chicago last Sunday. Guest of honor at the birthday dinner was Robert Wallace.

Celebrating with a family dinner party was the E. W. Lindeman's way of observing their two birthdays which fall within the same week. Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Lindeman Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. George Lindeman Jr.

E. W. Lindeman recently returned from a three week stay in Springfield, Massachusetts, where he attended the Monarch Life Insurance school.

Neighbors go visiting

Mrs. J. Valvo left last week on a motor trip to Houston, Texas to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rose Modine, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nelson and their children, Carolyn and Richard, spent Sunday visiting the E. Nelsons in Chicago.

Visiting the neighbors

Week-ending at the Theodore Olson home was Mrs. Olson's brother, Delbert Easton, of Chicago.

Carroll Hubbard, 12 year old son of the Frank Hubbards, entertained his friend, Jerry Kern of Roselle for dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George McNally and children, former residents of Arlington Heights, visited the Wilbert Pate family Sunday. Mr. McNally is Mrs. Pate's brother.

Another former resident of the town, Miss Anneliese Willie, visited the Robert Lockwoods this past Sunday.

C. H. Rosene is one of those lucky individuals who finds time to combine business and pleasure. While on a business trip to Minnesota last week he, along with a few of his friends, found time to fish in Big Sandy Lake, which is about 150 miles north of Minneapolis. Mrs. Rosene promises a full report on just how big those fish are up north at this time of the year.

Club entertaining

Last week Mrs. Charles Rehfeldt was hostess to the Book Review club for a dessert luncheon. Mrs. E. Hoppe reviewed the book "The Chinatown Family," by Linn YuTang.

Mrs. Theodore Drew is hostess today to her bridge club of eight local women for luncheon and bridge.

Breakfast party

"Come as you are," said Mrs. B. L. Cochrane last Friday and that's what ten of the ladies on N. Harvard street did. Guests of honor at the late morning breakfast were, Mrs. Herbert Norman and Mrs. Robert Ottmer, who will soon be moving out of town.

The honored guests were given gifts and corsages by the women who gathered for the late breakfast and chat. All guests were given gifts according to their early morning needs and apparel.

Elaine Briel was given a package of tea because it was so early in the morning for her to be out. Florence Dalton interrupted her house cleaning, and appropriate was given a scrub brush to resume her task when she returned home. Mrs. Edward Schumacher and Mrs. Robert Ottmer were going shopping so a memo pad was in order for them.

The biggest laugh of all was given to Mrs. Alfred Loll's little boy who came dressed in a knee length bathrobe and snow suit helmet.

New Northwesters

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sarvana and their daughter, Suzanne, 20 months old, have just moved into their new home at 727 Harvard street. Mr. Sarvana, former local auto parts salesman, is now employed by the Arlington Park Jockey club. Mr. Sarvana states that as a former salesman he had ample opportunity to see the whole northwest district, and that he chose his present home as just what he wanted in this area. The Sarvana home is a five room brick in the cape cod style with space for two additional rooms upstairs.

The "little" store, as it is commonly known out northwest, is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Neal Atherton. The Athertons have changed the name from Ridge Market to Arlington Foods. For the past few years they have lived in the Itasca countryside area. They feel well qualified to handle the needs of their customers in their new self service market, having had previous experience in operating a food store. They are currently remodeling the living quarters in back of the store. They have two children, Cheryl, five, and Neal, seven.

Over at 1000 N. Kennicott the three month old ranch house has a new owner. Mrs. Chloe Maryanski and her infant son, Richard, seven months old, have just moved in from the northwest side of Chicago. Mrs. Maryanski's mother, Mrs. B. Zimmerman of Ohio, will also make her home with them. They are both glad to get away from city living, and think housekeeping will be a lot easier in a compact ranch home.

Woman's club board plans '49-'50 program

The Board of the Arlington Heights Woman's club are meeting each Monday morning in the field house for the purpose of selecting committees and working on plans for the next club year.

Mrs. Henry Busse, chairman of Conservation and Garden for the coming year, organized a trip to Mrs. McAllister's Studio in Barrington. The women brought their own lunch and a container and material for a lesson on flower arrangement. They had a lovely time. Anyone wishing to make a trip like this, please contact Mrs. Busse 2292.

The women who made the trip were Mesdames H. J. Gregg, Richard Mates, Arthur Martens, Charles Purvis, Roy Fiddler, D. C. Frisk, A. J. Sakelson and Ira Cowen.

Plan luncheon

The Martha Circle of the Woman's Guild of St. John's Ev. and Ref. church, Arlington Heights, will give a 1 o'clock luncheon June 2, at the church.

All women of the church are invited to attend. There will be a guest speaker and the missionary department will be in charge of the program.

Honor bride-to-be at two showers

The first shower was given by Mrs. Earl Westfall of Villa Park. Mrs. N. A. Carlson and her daughter, Bernette, of Palatine, were co-hostesses at the second shower, which was held Friday. Thirty guests were present to view the opening of gifts.

SUES FOR FAILURE TO PROTECT CLIENT

B. F. Eidamiller, a Des Plaines insurance broker, has been sued in the Circuit court by Myron Walter, a minor, by his father William Walters, for $20,000 damages for failing to protect him in an automobile accident damage suit. It is charged the agent agreed to supply $10,000 and $5,000 damage protection, but failed to do so when Walters had an accident and was sued. As a result Walters was assessed for $10,000 damages through the agent's failure to protect him.

Incentive for Farmers

High prices and heavy demand for meat and dairy products give farmers an added incentive to try to save every one of this spring's crop of pigs, calves and lambs.

Circling the Town

by PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Arlington Heights is the "City of Good Neighbors," and really lives up to its name. Friendliness has long been traditional here, and the newcomer hasn't lived here long before he has at least a speaking acquaintance with the man next door.

However, many people find they soon want to augment their activities, to participate more fully in village affairs.

Recently the Community Council has begun a village calendar to help keep everyone posted on regular and special meetings and other events of community-wide interest.

In "Circling the Town" we're going to give new Arlington Heights—and not so new ones, too—an idea of how to go about meeting new friends in some of the village's clubs and organizations.

Churches are traditionally friendly places which welcome strangers not only to their services but as members of their clubs, too. Far from being an exception, Arlington's churches offer to the newcomer myriad ways of getting acquainted.

St. John's

St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, for instance, has a Women's Guild, to which all women of the church belong. Subsidiary organizations of the Guild are two circles, the Martha Circle which meets afternoons, and the Friendly Circle which meets evenings. A Young Adults group, for the 18-24 age group, both single and couples, serves the younger group of the church, while a Youth Fellowship organization works with the high schoolers. There is also a Men's club. A call to St. John's minister, W. F. Kamphenkel, will bring the newcomer information about and a welcome to any of these groups.

Presbyterian

The fact that non-members, as well as members of the Presbyterian church are invited to join its church's organization is stressed by Rev. C. Victor Brown. Six circles form the Women's Association of the church, and meet monthly for social and philanthropic purposes. One of the circles meets in the evening and is designed especially for women who work or for those with very small children. However, on circle afternoons a nursery for youngsters is provided at the church. The Ladies Aid society is another prominent Presbyterian church organization which meets monthly.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club, for all age groups, meets the second Friday of each month for dinner—usually potluck—and a social meeting. For the younger group there is the Young Married Couples club, which also meets monthly. Men's and women's Bible classes—the former formed at the request of several men in the church—meet at Sunday school hour. Again, a call to the church office will bring a welcome to any of these groups.

Faith Lutheran

Arlington Heights' newest church, Faith Evangelical Lutheran, has three organizations which invite newcomers. The Faith Ladies society meets evenings and consists mainly of married women. There are about 75 members who have programs, do welfare work, sewing and quilting. Some of the members also belong to the Women's Missionary league, which meets for educational discussions and visual programs. They also sponsor an aid to undernourished European children program. For the men, Faith church offers the Walther League. Pastor Edgar Behrens at 227-W can give additional information to any one interested in joining these clubs.

Methodist

At the Methodist church, too, there are a wealth of clubs where the newcomer to town receives a warm welcome. The Women's Society for Christian Service—famously called the WSCS—is the basic women's group, and it, too has several circles which meet primarily for sociability and good times. One of these, the Bykota, is an evening group and provides fellowship for those who find an afternoon club inconvenient.

A Kuppel Club, for all ages, meets the first Saturday of the month and has a membership of about 40 couples. The Methodist Youth fellowship serves the high school youth and those in their later teens. The church office, 99, will put interested people in touch with the leaders of these organizations.

St. Peter Lutheran

St. Peter Lutheran church has a visiting committee which calls upon newcomers, but being human, even they may miss someone once in a while, so if a newcomer wants information, Pastor L. V. Stephan, 256, will be glad to provide it.

The Dorcas Aid and Lutheran Aid societies are the church's women's groups, and the Mother's club serves the St. Peter school. It also sponsors the Girl Scout and Brownie troops. The Lutheran Layman's League sponsors a Boy Scout troop, and there is also a Couple's club for younger married people.

St. James Catholic

An active new organization in town is the St. James Catholic Mother's club, which aims to promote the welfare of the school. They have recently undertaken the sponsorship of the Girl Scout troop. The various other organizations of St. James, including the Women's Guild, of course, welcome all members of the parish.

The ministers of all the churches emphasize that new people are always welcome. Not only to join their churches but as visitors to any of the activities.

Stork feathers

Mr. and Mrs. R. Dennis Malcolmson of 726 S. Highland, Arlington Heights, are announcing the arrival of a son, May 24, at Evanston hospital. The little lad, who has been named Lawrence Bruce but will be nicknamed "Larry," tipped the scales at 8 pounds 13 ounces. His mother is the former Marian Babbitt. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben K. Babbitt of Arlington Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Malcolmson of Riverside.

Word was received this week from Auburn, Washington, telling of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Young, May 7. The little girl, who is the Young's fourth child, weighed in at 7 pounds 10 3/4 ounces and has been named Tracy Jeanne. Mrs. Young is the former Edith Rotzoll of Arlington Heights. The happy maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stueber of Arlington Heights.

Wed in double ring, candlelight ceremony

Miss Alice Ortel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ortel, of Wheeling, became the bride of Frank Orlandini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Orlandini, of Northbrook, during the candlelight service last Saturday, held in Wheeling Presbyterian church. Dr. Earle E. Cairns officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Glimmering lights from the tall white tapers in the seven branched candelabra furnished the background for the huge baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and carnations which adorned the altar where the young people took their vows. Miss Virginia Merry, of Deerfield, sang "Because," and "Through the Years" just before the ceremony. She was accompanied by Miss Grace Moller at the organ.

The bride entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was fashioned of white satin trimmed with lace and had a hooped skirt. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Dorothy McCrindle, friend of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore pink taffeta and carried yellow carnations, as did the bridesmaids, who were Miss Mary Jane Glass, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Marie Ebner, the bridegroom's sister. Their dresses were green taffeta.

25 show ponies lost in blaze on Besinger farm

Twenty-five valuable show ponies owned by Leonard W. Besinger, Arlington Heights contractor, were lost in a sweeping barn blaze May 15 that caused a loss estimated at $100,000.

The hackney ponies were to be shown in Dallas, Texas, June 5, at the opening of the show season. They also were to be shown at Houston, Shreveport and Little Rock.

Lost in the fire also were show rigs, harness and other driving equipment. The farm is located on state route 31, 1 1/2 miles north of Carpentersville.

Among the stock lost in the fire were two nationally known stallions, Brown Park Master and Old Town Glowing Star.

The flames lighted up the sky and attracted hundreds of motorists.

fashioned identically to the maid of honor's. Little Sharon Scanlon, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and was dressed in pink taffeta, carrying yellow carnations. Junior usher, Harold Brown escorted the flower girl.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Joseph Orlandini as best man, with Fred Blackburn and Jack Ebner, acting as ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held at the VFW hall in Skokie, with over 350 guests attending. Out of town guests included friends from LaSalle, Illinois and Princeton, Wisconsin. Music for dancing was by Art Burmeister's four piece orchestra. A midnight supper was served before the cutting of the wedding cake.

Sunday afternoon the young couple left on a one week honeymoon, which they are spending in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Orlandini plan to make their home in Wheeling, with the bride's parents for the present.

THREE NE LEAGUE TITLES TO BE SETTLED THURSDAY

PAGE NINE

Last year after the conference track meet we predicted that 1949 would be Barrington's year in track as most of Palatine's points were scored by seniors while the best of Barrington's squad was under class. The rapid development of last year's frosh-sophs is the reason Palatine nosed out Barrington last Saturday. Coach Welty had only three seniors among the 20 boys who scored in this year's league meet while Barrington loses eight of their 14 scorers. On top of this Palatine's frosh-sophs were undefeated in conference meets the second year in a row. It all adds up to Palatine having an excellent chance to make it three straight in 1950.

Thais makes better mark than state winner

When Frank Thais high jumped six feet one and three quarters inches Saturday a conference mark was set which will withstand many years of jumping. It is the best mark in the league records. Thais qualified for the state meet but to attend he would have to miss the junior-senior prom. Other folks had their heart set on Frank being at the prom so he passed up the state meet. Down at Champaign the first place in the state meet was exactly two inches short of what Thais jumped in the conference meet.

Dramatic finish

The conference meet had a dramatic finish Saturday. All events were ended except the high jump and Barrington trailed Palatine by five points. Roake, of Barrington, tied with three others for fifth and added a fourth of a point. As Palatine's lone entry failed to get in the points it was up to Tukey of Barrington. Tukey had to win a first to win the meet for the Bronchos and he made a heroic effort, staying with Thais up to five feet eight and a quarter inches for the best of his career. Most of the Barrington fans did not realize just how good Thais really was and thought they had a good chance to cop the meet.

It is needless to say that the hero of the conference was a Palatine hero as he beat Tukey and set a new record. Barrington certainly did not lose the meet because their boys failed to compete through they did so in great fashion. Tukey won the shot and made his best high jump mark. Bauman was superb in the dashes and broad jump. Pederson beat out the favorite, Miller of Antioch, in the mile. O'Keefe ran a brilliant half mile. It might better be said that Coach Frey's boys almost beat Palatine because they were at their best.

There were breaks here and there in the conference meet that could be considered as winning or losing but in our opinion the meet turned upon the 880 relay, the last running event, Barrington led most of the way and Kranz, running for Barrington had a 10 yard lead on Gene Anderson of Palatine coming down the stretch in the anchor leg of the race. Ten yards from the finish Anderson appeared to trail by five yards yet he closed the gap with a terrific kick and in the last stride broke the tape inches ahead of the Barrington boy.

Kranz was finishing at the tape instead of beyond the tape and as he slowed down Anderson drove past him. Had Barrington won this event the score would have been Barrington 73 1/2 and Palatine 70. In handing out hero honors one cannot forget little "Gene" Anderson and that relay finish.

Northwest meet will not be held at Palatine next year

This will be the last time for a year or two that Palatine will be host to the conference meet. Palatine used 10 faculty men to help run the meet but requests for help from other schools met with so little response that Palatine feels that the conference has come to feel no responsibility for their meet. It has been held in Palatine the last 10 years, and too much has come to be taken for granted by the participants.

This year the meet was postponed twice and every one was called and given a chance to object to the Saturday date but there were no protests until the day of the meet. Then the gripping was terrific. It will be good for the league to shift the meet around to other schools.

Week of bad weather upsets sports plans

Last week was a bad one for sports postponements in a conference which has a top heavy sports program this spring. The critical Elia-Barrington baseball game was put off in order that it might be played under the best of conditions rather than those which might result in breaks. It seems that the majority of years that weather has been unfavorable the week of the state track meet. The Illinois state high school records would be better were it not for this fact. New records in the mile, 800, high hurdles, and possibly 100 yard dash might have been made this year but for a wet track and chilly weather.

Arlington appreciates need for physical education facilities

Voters of Arlington Heights high school district approved the bond issue to build a big new gymnasium along with added class rooms. It was a wise move and Arlington Heights voters understood and appreciated the needs of their high school. When the addition is completed Arlington will be in a position to have a physical education program second to none in this area, instead of one of the more limited type.

Palatine frosh nine loses to Barrington and Arlington

Palatine freshmen lost two games this past week end. Saturday Barrington beat the first year Pirates 11-5 and Monday Arlington Heights took a 24-5 decision. Thirteen bases on balls given up by Palatine pitchers was a big help to Barrington Saturday. Schaubel and Whitmore got two hits each in Barrington's total of seven while Malcolm James got two of Palatine's five.

Palatine was only out by 12 to 8 at Arlington, but 16 walks helped Arlington score 24 runs. It was the fifth straight win for the Heights frosh, with one game against Niles this Wednesday still to go. "Itchy" Carlson pitched all the way for the young Cardinals.

Redwings card two games over holiday weekend

If the weatherman is in a cooperative mood the Arlington Redwings will play two games Sunday and Monday, this coming holiday week end.

Having had three games rained out so far this month, Sunday's game actually will be the home opener for this season.

Sunday afternoon the Berwyn Colts will play here in a West Suburban league game. They have a 1-1 record so far this year, whereas the Redwings have one victory, the only game played.

Monday afternoon will bring the Northern State Teachers College of DeKalb, Illinois, to Heights. Jack Brumm, who pitches for the Redwings during the vacation period, is a member of that team and is responsible for arranging this game against his home town.

Brumm expects to pitch for the college team and has passed the word along that he will be working just as hard against the Redwings Monday as he will for them later on.

This double baseball treat in Recreation Park will begin at 3 o'clock each afternoon.

Thais sets new high jump mark of 6' 1 3/4" to win

Palatine took their second Northwest Conference track championship in a row Saturday as they eked out a close 72 to 71 1/2 victory over Barrington's strong Bronchos. The rest of the field was far behind with Bensenville scoring 22 1/2, Antioch 22, Grant 12, and Wauconda 6. Palatine led all through the meet but Barrington narrowed the margin in the final events and almost won the meet.

Best N. W. record with 6' 1 3/4" high jump

Franklin Theis, Bensenville high jumper, who passed up going to the state meet to attend the prom Friday night, broke the conference record to smithereens as he set a new mark of six feet one and three-fourths inches. This was two inches higher than that made by the first place winner in the state the same day. Thais beat Tukey of Barrington

Riviera and Wheeling win softball games

Future of the Northeast loop is even darker, with Niles already admitted to the big Suburban league starting in some sports next year. From then on it will be the "Big Two" for the Northeast loop, and sports writers will consider the name North-east buried.

IN BASEBALL this season Leyden has, perhaps, the most impressive record of the three schools and is certain to at least share in the mythical championship. They split with Arlington, and trounced Niles twice.

That second contest against the Heights was especially thrilling with Ray Huffman batting in all seven Cardinal runs, including three the final inning with a homer to win, 7-6.

The Cards have a tough row to hoe. They edged Niles in the one previous conference meeting, 4-3. Then in district play Monday of last week, Coach Wally Grace's boys repeated the trick.

"Beating Niles twice in a row is hard enough," stated Coach Grace Tuesday, "but trying to make it three in a row is next to impossible."

The Cards will be out after that third win, however, hoping to implant another trophy in the case at the local school.

PERHAPS the quietest match of the day between conference schools will be the golf tournament at Old Orchard. Heights rates the edge in this sport, and should be low man on the greens flag, after the final round is over.

Thursday night, under lights, Leyden will play host to the Northeast conference track and field meet. Again it will be a battle between the Trojans and Cardinals for final honors.

Fourth Saturday in April found Arlington a pre-meet favorite to cop class A of the Palatine Relays. Instead, Arlington placed fourth, with Niles ahead of the locals.

Ten days later, under lights at Arlington, the Trojans came out second best with the meet determined in the final event. Balanced scoring of Coach Willy Creamer's boys told the story for the Cardinals.

THURSDAY NIGHT the results can go either way, depending upon just how many points Leyden grabs off. It's those thirds, fourths and fifths that will settle the meet, and while the Eagles won't be copying their share of firsts, whoever they pass in the lesser positions will be on the short end of the trophy.

Either way, Thursday, weather permitting, promises to be a crucial one for Northeast conference fans.

Ela beats Wauconda

Jerry Wendt of Ela had a perfect day at bat against Wauconda Tuesday afternoon when he rapped out a homer, triple, double, and walked twice in five times at bat. This raised his average past the .500 mark for nine games. The Ela team continued its league winning streak, 17-4, and is batting over .300 as a squad.

Antioch defeats Palatine nine, 10-3

Antioch took the measure of Palatine Tuesday afternoon in a Northwest conference game, 10-3. Hits were even, with Antioch garnering seven to the Pirates' six. But six errors on the part of the Cook county school cost the game.

While Scott pitched all the way for the Sequoias, Brumm tossed three frames for Palatine, giving up one hit. Errors aided, however, and Antioch scored five runs. They scored five more on six hits off Rose.

Wauconda's only first was made in the frosh relay where they whipped a favored Palatine quartet handily in a good .50.4. Wilton won Antioch's only first with a good race in the high hurdles. Bensenville took a first on Thais' fine high jumping and shared first in the pole vault as Currie tied Kranz of Barrington. Grant brought only four boys to the meet and did not get a first or second. Mowrer scored half their points on a third, fourth, and fifth.

The meet was held Saturday after postponements from Wednesday and Thursday due to heavy rains.

Maine high speaker

Frank Hill, veteran Northwestern university track coach, will be the principal speaker at the second annual Lions club spring sports banquet honoring Maine athletes who have participated in track, baseball, tennis, and golf this spring.

Women's Tri-city golf league

TO TEST PEKIN

In addition to its league schedule of four games this week, Barrington high school nine will play Pekin Saturday.

On the sidelines

by MARV PRELLBERG

Arlington will be gunning for 3 mythical Northeast Conference championships today.

If the Cards can whip Niles today in a crucial baseball tilt at Recreation Park, Coach Wally Grace's charges will grab a co-championship with Leyden in the diamond sport.

Coach Curtiss Larsen's Arlington duffers will be favorites to win the conference golf title for the second straight year in a triangular meet with Niles and Leyden at Old Orchard.

Again at night the Cards will be trying to grab a track trophy in the triangular conference track meet at Leyden under the lights.

Next Wednesday night, June 1, Arlington's baseball squad is supposed to help Elgin High dedicate its new lights by engaging with them in a game under the lights. This contest is only tentative though, depending on whether or not the lights are ready. The Cards and Elgin tied earlier in the season at Arlington 4-4.

AT THIS POINT Arlington's athletic record for this season stands at 88 wins and 44 losses. Last year's total was 100 victories and that will not be missed by too much this year.

Harry Griffith has improved enough to see part time service for the Cardinal baseball team, but only in the outfield. He played the last 4 innings against Maine.

The Cardinal Freshman baseball team is gunning for a perfect season. The record up to this article is 5-0, with the season finale at Niles held yesterday.

The wind hampered Arlington's sprint star Gordon Busse in his efforts to place in the 220 in the state meet. Gordon qualified Friday by placing in 2 heats. The wind is definitely against a small boy more than a big kid. This is no alibi, simply an explanation. Incidentally, Busse has another year to go and should place in next year's meet.

THE CARDINAL and White 880 relay team ran well in the state meet but competition was simply too tough. The Cards clipped off the distance in 1:33.6 but was not good enough for a place in this event which La-Grange won in 1:29.

The Soph track meet with Niles, here, next Tuesday night may be a night meet. You Arlington fans are to check at the high school to see whether it is to be at night or not. This meet should be very good since Niles nosed out the Cards by 3 points in a triangular meet with Leyden recently.

Cards lose to Maine nine in district play

by MARV PRELLBERG

It was a case of "too many errors" last Saturday morning in the sub-district final at Niles when the Arlington fielders could not give any support to Bill Robinson's 4-hit pitching and as a result lost a tough one to Maine, 3-1.

The Cardinals fielders made 6 errors and Arlington undoubtedly could have won the sub-district title if it hadn't been for these "boobies." Robinson pitched almost flawless ball and didn't let one Maine batter reach first via a walk.

This loss to Maine was suffered by the same score which the Maine squad beat the Cardinals by on April 21.

With two outs in the top of the first, Bill Wiest tripled for Arlington but was left stranded when Robinson fanned.

HOWEVER, Maine came back in the bottom of the first with one run on 1 hit and 2 errors. Martinson reached first when his infield fly ball was errored. He reached second on an error, and with two gone, Martinson came home on Pat O'Brien's single.

The Cards tallied their lone run in the third when Lloyd Meyer singled, moved to second on a fielder's choice, and came home on Wiest's second straight hit.

Maine came back in the fourth with the winning 2 tallies. This time 3 Cardinal errors figured in the scoring and only 1 hit.

Koenen was safe on an error by Eddie Kostka, moved to second on Skarbeck's grounder, and trotted home on Meyer's error off Kilroy's bat. Traeger then singled sending in Kilroy for the final 3-1 count.

Entries roll in for Wisconsin auto

No less than a half-dozen early qualifiers for the Indianapolis Memorial Day 500-mile speedway classic already are included among the preliminary entries for the A-A-A national championship 100-mile big car auto race on the fast one-mile dirt track at Wisconsin State Fair park, Sunday afternoon, June 5.

Eighteen cars will be permitted to start the race. Oldtimer Rex Mays, Glendale, Cal., extremely popular with midwestern speedway fans, once again was the first entry for the championship event here. Mays, who qualified one of the rakish front-wheel drive Novi Specials for the Indianapolis race, will appear in Milwaukee in a new 1949 Kurtis Offenhauser.

Time trials for the 100-mile race will begin at 1 p. m. (C.S.T.) on June 5, and the lineup is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock. Reserved seat tickets are priced at $2.50 and $3.50, including tax, and may be obtained at the Wisconsin Auto Racing Association, Inc., headquarters, 1200 S. 1st st., Milwaukee 4, Wis.

Because of wet grounds, the polo match between the championship North Shore Aces and the colorful California Dragons, which was scheduled for Sunday, May 22, will be played on Sunday, May 29. Scheduled to start at 3:30 p. m., the match will be played at the North Shore Polo club, Golf road, 1/2 mile west of Skokie road, the North Shore Aces' home field.

Way to man's title is through his tummy

If good substantial well prepared food can win the world's heavyweight championship for Ezzard Charles, the title is as good as won, according to Jake Mintz, the manager of the Cincinnati scrapper.

They say the way to a man's heart is via his stomach but Mintz believes it will lead to the heavyweight title and he will gain that by licking Jersey Joe Walcott at Comiskey Park, June 22.

Jake has hired Pete Russell, an uncle of Charles, to do all the cooking in the camp which opened at Momence Friday. Ezzard's grandmother will be around to see that he gets nothing but the best home cooked food and plenty of fresh vegetables, so between his grandmother and his uncle, Ezzard should be well taken care of.

Ezzard in talking of the training table said, "I have to watch my weight, I weigh 185 pounds now and can't afford to take off too much. Uncle Pete and 'Granny' know how to feed me and I know I will be in good hands."

A fighter only eats two meals a day while training. He has breakfast at ten in the morning and dinner at five in the afternoon. Breakfast is a good substantial meal and dinner is the same. The menu in the morning is usually fruit juices, cereal, eggs, chops, tea, and toast, while dinner at five is usually made up of a green salad, steak, two or three fresh vegetables, tea or milk, and a fresh fruit dessert.

Medinah's new golf pro set for open

Guy Paulsen, Medinah's capable new professional, just can't stay away from his favorite game. Today, after 25 years in golf as caddy-master, club-maker, tournament golfer, and club professional, Guy is enthusiastic with his new job at Medinah as he was over his first set of clubs.

Paulsen joined Medinah early in 1949, just in time for the club's 25th anniversary and to act as host pro for this year's National Open, to be held June 9-11.

Guy took with him to Medinah a diverse and well-rounded background. His first professional experience was as an apprentice under Chester Nelson at the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Country Club. There he served as club-maker and caddy master. Four years later he joined Jack Darry's teaching staff at Olympia Fields Country Club near Chicago.

Fort Wayne called him back shortly thereafter, however, to serve as head pro at Orchard Ridge for another four years. During this time Guy spent the winter seasons as a member of Ed Dudley's teaching staff at The Augusta (Ga.) National course, home of the famed Masters' Championship.

Paulsen changed jobs again in 1939, when he became pro at the Old Town Club on Tobacco-Tycoon R. J. Reynolds' estate in Winston-Salem, N. C.

As a competitor, Paulsen also established a successful tournament record, winning the Indiana Open twice and qualifying for the PGA nine times. In 1933 he captured fourth in the Western Open, while in the 1931 National Open he took 13th.

Best Old Orchard is 65

Ben Riley of Old Orchard is one of the Chicago area's veteran golf professionals, this being his 17th season at the Arlington Heights layout.

One of the better instructors in the sport, Riley has had many sub-par rounds. His best is a 67, four under regulation figures, on his course.

Lowest round ever fired at Old Orchard is a 65, by Gene Battistoni, free-lance pro. Mrs. Battistoni is the clerk on the first tee.

Future frosh look good in local 'playday'

Seven Wheeling township grade schools competed in the annual play day sponsored by the athletic department of Arlington Heights high school, and showed plenty of good prospects for future high school track teams.

Athletic director Wally Grace saw bright lights on the horizon for Cardinal teams of the future with a good crop of boys headed for the freshman class next year.

The Arlington Heights public school took most of the positions in the meet, with several outstanding marks being set. The broad jump mark of 15' 11" by Laudenhimer of Mt. Prospect, was unusual, as was the shot out of 35' 3" of Coulter of the Heights public school.

Football punt of over 40 yards was kicked by Hinneberg of the local grade school, while the winning baseball toss passed 243' 10".

Bears' shorts

Red Grange, Johnny Sisk and Link Lyman, three of the most famous former Chicago Bears, are rated among the nation's top insurance executives. Lyman has moved to the southwest, but Sisk still is located in Milwaukee, and Grange also devotes some of his time to Chicago radio.

Ken Kavanaugh, great pass receiving end of the Chicago Bears has accounted for more than 60 touchdowns in his six seasons in the National Football League. Nearly 50 have been scored in regular league championship games. Aerials to Kavanaugh have gained more than 3,000 yards.

A number of Bears are playing professional or semi-pro baseball this summer. Bobby Layne is confining his activities to football, but John Hoffman, new fullback; J. R. Boone, Bobby Barbour and Joe Osmanski are keeping in top shape on the diamond.

Woman's club fulfills pledge to library

Fulfilling a pledge of funds to the proposed Mt. Prospect public library building, Mrs. R. F. Milligan (left) treasurer, presented a check in behalf of the Mt. Prospect Woman's club to Mrs. H. W. Carlson, representing the library board, at the club spring luncheon Tuesday, May 17.

THIS MONEY, together with gifts from other local organizations, has been applied on the purchase of property at Busse and Emerson streets where the new building will be located.

Architect's sketches are on display in the library.

The public library was established in 1929 by the Woman's club and was operated by the club until 1943, when it was turned over to the village and became tax supported.

Rules of traffic game reviewed by chief in time for summer 'spinning'

With spring almost in full sway, automobiles, bicycles and pedestrians are appearing on the traffic scene as rapidly as flowers are blooming over the village.

In an article this week, Arlington Heights Police Chief Carl H. Skoog, whose efficient police force has been trained to cope with this annual outburst of traffic, is reminding local residents of some of the rules of the game they should observe to keep the accident toll to a minimum.

His article this week deals with school busses, old cars, bicycles and obeying traffic signals. The chief will report on other phases next week.

The early months of 1949 have shown a gratifying drop in the death toll on Illinois highways. There is no reason why a comparable reduction cannot be achieved throughout the remainder of the year. It can be accomplished if all motor vehicle operators exercise proper attention and skill necessary for safe driving in traffic.

School busses

More school busses travel upon the rural highways and village streets now than ever before. They travel upon segments of rural primary highways during the school year only. Their presence in traffic may be unexpected and perhaps confusing. Motorists should not only be alert for school busses in traffic, but should realize that because of the hazards in connection with the transportation of school children, special stops must be made as provided by article XIV section 99 of the Illinois Traffic act which reads as follows:

"The driver of a vehicle upon meeting or overtaking any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall immediately stop his vehicle and shall not pass such school bus while such school children are alighting therefrom and embarking thereon."

Old passenger cars

An aged passenger car may be kept in as good condition as a new car by a mechanically inclined owner but in the period of high repairs, cost and scarcity of efficient service, many owners are forced to defer repairs.

Nearly 8 in each 10 vehicles involved in rural highway or village accidents in 1948 were passenger cars. Any factor affecting the operating condition of passenger cars is therefore of interest to drivers who wish to remain clear of accident involvement.

Bicycles

Traffic laws apply to persons riding bicycles. Every person riding a bicycle upon a roadway shall be granted all the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of a vehicle by the laws of this state declaring rules of the road applicable to vehicles or by the traffic ordinances of this village.

Obedience to traffic control signals

Any person operating a bicycle shall obey the instruction of official traffic control signals, signs, and other control devices applicable to vehicles, unless otherwise directed by a police officer.

A person propelling a bicycle shall not ride other than astride a permanent and regular seat attached thereto.

No bicycle shall be used to carry more persons at one time than the number for which it is designed and equipped.

No person riding bicycles upon a roadway shall ride more than two abreast.

No person shall operate a bicycle at a speed greater than reasonable and prudent under the conditions then existing.

Whenever a usable path for bicycles has been provided adjacent to a roadway, bicycle riders shall use such path and shall not use the roadway.

'One that didn't get away,' says Art

An 82 pound tarpon, "silver king fish," is the subject of Art Gatzkes fish story told in Arlington Heights this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatzkes have just returned from deep sea fishing at Fort Meyers, Florida, where Art reeled in his lucky catch. This tarpon happened to also be the second largest fish caught in that area during April.

Though the Gatzkes now live in Milwaukee they are both formerly of this area. Mrs. Gatzke is the former Elsie Milbratz.

Clean Milk

Pre-rinsing of milk and cream cans immediately before they are used with pure clean water is recommended as a means of reducing bacterial counts and preventing sediment contamination. Hooded covers placed over the can lids will also help in keeping sediment out of the milk or cream.

'Benjamin girls' celebrate reunion

The "Benjamin Girls," a group of present and former women employees of Benjamin Electric Manufacturing Co., celebrated their twentieth annual, consecutive reunion last Saturday (May 14, 1949) with music and luncheon at the company's cafeteria in the Des Plaines plant.

More than 40 of the 54 women present were former employees from as early as 1910, said Miss Mary Asping, this year's chairman of the committee on arrangements and private secretary to Mr. W. D. Steele, President of the company.

Hoyt P. Steele, vice-president of Benjamin Electric, launched the program with a short welcoming talk. Dinner music and accompaniment for the community sing were provided by Alfred Schultz of the Benjamin Traffic Department, and his electric accordion. Songs for the community sing were original lyrics set to the melodies of long-time song favorites. Six prizes were awarded to lucky winners of games.

SUES FOR $50,000

Seeing Eye tops goal

Theodore Reinwald, of Glenview, has sued Gus Gorgians, proprietor of a Des Plaines restaurant, in the Superior court for $50,000 damages for alleged slander which has caused him to lose his job with the Barnhoff Dairy Co., Glenview. He charges Gorgians accused him of stealing meat and made the charge several times in the presence of other persons. As a result he was discharged from his dairy job March 16.

Chicago's tenth annual Seeing Eye membership enrollment topped its goal this week. A committee of 239 volunteer workers and team chairmen set out on April 26, to enroll 1,000 new members for the Morristown, New Jersey, school that educates dogs as guides for blind people. Mrs. George Dapples, 348 Park Lane, was chairman of the Arlington Heights team.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: When a man and his wife are both veterans, does each of them have the right to the $4,000 VA loan guaranty if they jointly buy a home?

Answer: Yes, however, the maximum guaranty may not exceed 50 percent of the total loan.

Question: I am a veteran of WW II and have a service connected disability. I would like to know if the VA will pay my doctor if I go to him for an examination to determine whether I need hospital treatment or domiciliary care for my WW II ailment?

Answer: The VA will pay the cost of examination by a private physician only IF it has given the physician prior authority to make such an examination.

Question: I served in the Philippines and liked the climate and the people there, very much. I made a number of friends while in Manila and now have an opportunity to open a business there. Is it possible for me to obtain a GI Bill loan for such a venture?

Answer: No, GI loan guarantees are available only for property or a business within the continental limits of the United States or its possessions or territories.

Question: Is the amount of a veteran's disability compensation affected in any way by the amount of earnings he receives from other sources?

Answer: No.

Question: Please tell me what type of uniform is worn by members of the Civil Air Patrol . . . the auxiliary of the Air Force.

Answer: The uniform is the same as the one worn by personnel of the Regular Air Force with certain distinctive insignia exceptions.

Question: I saw service in Europe during WW II and was cited individually for the French Croix de Guerre and the unit in which I served was also awarded the French Croix de Guerre. Will these two awards of the Croix de Guerre entitle me to wear the French Fourragere?

Answer: No award of the Croix de Guerre to an individual is considered in determining eligibility to wear the Fourragere. The authority is Department of the Army General Order 23, March 25, 1948.

Question: Would five months of service qualify me for mustering-out pay?

Answer: Five months service, any part of which was prior to June 30, 1947, would entitle an enlisted man to mustering-out payment.

'Old fashioned girl' strictly icky

A prominent educator condemns many parents today for trying to rear their daughters as "old-fashioned girls" and thus failing to prepare them for life.

It is James L. Hymes, Jr., Professor of Education and Coordinator of Early Childhood Education at the New Paltz State Teachers College, New York.

In an article written for "Childcraft" books, Mr. Hymes declares that "the old-fashioned girl may have been Grandfather's ideal, but she has no realistic place in modern society."

"Today's woman is expected to take an active part in the affairs of her family, community, and the world. When she has been unprepared to assume a role of responsibility in childhood, she is apt to be both unhappy and unsuccessful as an adult."

"Many parents still hold the model of the 1900's for girls of today. They rear daughters who are over-protected, under-informed, and confined in their interests."

Appeal Board turns down protests

Hopes that a repetition of last year's above 90 percent reduction in property assessment could be repeated again this year by the County's Board of Tax Appeals are being dispelled.

Board Member William M. DeVine disclosed Tuesday that up to Monday night only 142 persons have been granted reductions in their property valuations. The board has heard 6,200 cases in making these reductions.

All told, DeVine said, 45,046 complaints have been filed on this year's tax billings, and the board is now hearing the appeals at a rate of about 1,000 a day.

The majority of the remainder of the 6,200 cases heard, who didn't get reductions, were listed as no change. Others didn't appear, and a few continuances were granted.

In one instance, DeVine pointed out, a taxpayer who came in to protest his high assessment left with an $831 increase on the valuation. A check of the property records in the Assessor's office showed an evaluation below what it should have been, DeVine explained.

The 148 reductions reflected a drop in the total assessment of $138,840, to which should be added another $78,935 decrease disclosed through errors discovered in the Assessor's records.

Senior Scouts study, frolic at outing

Though rain fell as a final curtain on the first Senior Scout conference, every Scout and leader present had a wonderful time! The conference began Saturday afternoon, May 14th, at Camp Pine. Park Ridge opened the first session with presentation of Colors. Eileen Shumaker followed with her welcome speech. Program Aide work in Girl Scout camps was introduced by Barbara Martin, Pat Greshner and Rosie Weidner.

Ruth Gronert then took her discussion group off into a corner and asked, "Why do we need more Senior Scout camping?" As the answers poured in here, they also poured in over in the mess hall where Betsy Larsen was leading a discussion of Program Aides in established camps. Ideas for more successful and larger troops popped everywhere in Jahalla Loveland's group.

Way over by the Arlington Heights cabin, Anita Petersen found out a lot more about Program Aides in day camps.

BASEBALL and dinner occupied the limelight until Mr. C. Bydal started calling the square dancing in the mess hall. Everyone joined in eagerly for the next hour and a half. The girls learned the dances first, and then fell in with all the energy they could muster. By the time Pat Gaul was ready to present the "Senior Showboat," all were well ready to sit down and watch. LaGrange led off with group singing. Skokie followed with their radio program, "Scouts are Funny!" The old-time lovers, "Frankie and Johnnie" appeared on the stage in the form of the Glenview Scouts.

Two melodramas came next, presented by Park Ridge. Western Springs gave an original opera of life on shipboard. Amid a little drizzle, Glenview had the campfire, after which each town retired to their cabins. In the Mt. Prospect cabin, the hostesses, the Mt. Prospect-Arlington Heights Wing Scout troop had pillow and blanket fights for some time before falling asleep. Several were very cold during the night and slept two in a bed. A few got up bright and early the next morning to go fishing and on a bird hike. What fun!

COLORS was rained out at 8:00 a. m., so Skokie put the flag up at 9. When 11 o'clock came Sunday morning, the girls and their leaders walked to the river's edge, where Western Springs had a lovely "Scouts' Own." Dinner followed and the mess hall

Ramblin' Around with Ramble Inn

by PHOEBE ANNE ELLIS

Eighth grade night was a big success as far as the future new members were concerned! Loads of them turned out to see what went on at Ramble Inn and here are a few of their first impressions and opinions of our Youth Center.

Barbara Golden decided that she liked it, and that the murals on the walls were cute. She said that she'd met lots of new kids; some, fellow eighth graders and others, upperclassmen.

"Boys aren't too polite about giving girls the chairs, but it's nice, anyway," were the remarks of Viola Pelletier and Ginny Behrens.

DONALD RUSH, John Koester and Jerry Collignon liked the dancing best of all. "Television and ping pong are most fun," commented Roger Lawbaugh and Wally Koest.

Mary Ann Herbst, Lorraine Tischer, Mary Ann Csanadi, and

Mary Ann Steuprich said, "The dancing is swell and the upperclassmen are very nice to us. We want to become members."

Garwood Leckband enthusiastically decided that the Y. C. "was fine just as it is," and that he wanted to be a member next fall. Ronnie Hutchinson reported that everyone treated him fairly and that he liked the snack bar. Some of the others expressed the wish that Ramble Inn could be made larger and also more quiet. Television and dancing were the favorite activities of the new arrivals. All wanted to join Ramble Inn next fall.

DICK BERNTHAL and Bob Teutsch, both seniors, won the doubles ping pong tournament, beating Shelby Stewart and Clarence Peterson. Their prize was $5.00. It took a long time to get that match played off, but they finally made it.

Friday night is the last time that Ramble Inn will be open this season. The year has passed quickly and successfully, thanks to the efforts of the members themselves, the officers, and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. Next year the Youth Center will be a real corporation beginning a new era for the future. It's been fun reporting the news of the Y. C. to you all year, and we seniors will miss the old place next fall. Good luck to the future of Ramble Inn and its members, old and new!

Dr. Ward's Notebook

Accept no substitute for mamma's love

I have a friend who is always inventing some darn fool gadget. The other day he showed me his latest contraption — an "insulated" baby bottle holder! You know, one of those gadgets to hold baby's bottle when you are too busy to be bothered. He wanted to know what I thought of the idea.

I can answer his question in two words: It smells!

I'll probably get myself in dutch with a lot of mothers around town who think they are busy. "It's so handy," "It's such a time-saver." "I can go right on with my work while junior drinks his formula." Etc., etc.

That's just the trouble. At feeding time when your baby should be held in your arms and given the cuddling and attention which psychologists tell us he should get, mom is dusting the house, ironing the curtains, or running things through the wash.

It's false economy and short-sightedness if you think you can "save" a few minutes by using a bottle holder to feed your baby. All the studies which have attempted to find out why some youngsters are happy-go-lucky and others unholy terrors have shown that breast-fed infants have fewer behavior problems than those fed by bottle.

Accordingly, if it is necessary to feed your child from a bottle instead of nursing it, the situation should be as close to the natural one as possible: hold junior in your arms, rock him and cuddle him during every feeding just as you would if he were nursing. In this way the tiny one will not miss the security and satisfaction of breast feeding.

Some of you young mothers have the idea that machines and gadgets can do the job you are supposed to do. That may be true for an automatic dishwasher. But it is obvious that there is no substitute for the warm love and affection a mother has for her child.

This is an indisputable fact which has been known for centuries. The difficulty in the last few years has been that we have gotten so smart that we have been able to invent machines to do practically everything.

But we have yet to produce a machine which will nurse the baby, change his diapers, rock it to sleep when it cries, and give it the care and attention which is so vital to its ideal growth. That's what a mother is for!

Cub Scouts get kite pointers

Leader Dick Fox is chairman of the Arlington Heights pack consisting of 13 dens or a total of 160 boys.

Anklin' Around with Ainslie

Is your young daughter the belle of the birthday parties these days? Or what is new in the young set world anyway?

All the way from the cradle to the teen age fashions are changing. Master Tommy, aged two months, kicks sturdy legs in the sunshine and is as snappily garbed in brief sunsuits as his older brother. No more long white dresses and stockings for your baby son, it's a boy definitely from the very first brief rompers. And young Susy looks so cute and cuddlesome in prettiest of pastel pinafores complete with sash bows as big as her wee self.

At Emery Cole and Co. you'll find some petite dresses with that just like mamma look. Several are brief sundresses, all be-ruffled and bedecked with frilly apron fronts that button on and off. Or there are some pint sized frocks that have their own separate cape that fastens over the perkiest of sundresses.

SOMETHING that is news and a really bright idea in bathing suits can be found at the Emerald Shop. These are Ganzler Glo-suits in really startling colors guaranteed to make your small fry stand out on any beach, so that you can spot him in a crowd without frantic searching.

They're in electric colors that will amaze you, in green, blue, and red. The boy's trunks are topped by a prancing pony mane and all to cover a small guy's manly chest. And for little daughter's new bonnet, you'll find some adorables in pique wies eyelet embroidery to frame a baby face.

Hagenbrings have a little gadget called "Lookit Mommy" that is the answer to we mothers who hate that job of letting down buttons on overalls. Just made for tots that zip out of pants in nothing flat, they require no sewing—just button on and zingo the straps are three inches longer. Come in dogs or pigs in colored leather and can be changed from one suit to another.

Did you realize too that television is hitting the sand pile set especially in toys? This same store has "Howdy Doody" copied from the original in a hand puppet, so you can have him doing the same tricks he performs on television. Speaking of hand puppets Hagenbrings have a wide selection, and with summer coming they'll keep the kids fascinated for hours as they plan their own shows. Marionettes are back too, and I saw one complete with skates that could do everything but talk. There are cowboy hats, scarfs, spurs and six shooters for the radio range cowboy too.

SAND TOYS to keep the small bunch happy or a nice gift with a dollar price tag is records. Everything in plastics for the doll house like lawnmowers, carpet sweepers, wee french phones, sewing machines and taylor tots will add hours of housekeeping fun for a wee miss.

There is a new squeaky toy too, a bright green frog that shows his displeasure by sticking out his tongue, and what baby wouldn't laugh at that.

Something brand new and soon to be on this store's shelves are plastic paper dolls. The clothes are in brightest plastic colors and adhere to the doll so even socks will stick in the right spots.

So if you are pondering about a birthday party present these toy suggestions might help. All reasonably priced from 39 cents on up as your pocket book dictates.

Your small fry will be the best dressed in the neighborhood by sticking to local stores. And mother you'll save yourself a baby sitter's fee and an extra bunion on your foot by doing your shopping for the small fry's clothes and toys at home.

Christmas seal sale

The 1948 Christmas Seal campaign in Arlington Heights netted a total of $1,867.46 to aid in the fight against tuberculosis, a final accounting showed today.

The amount topped by $145.91 the amount raised in 1947.

The bulk of the amount raised, or $1,758.15, was realized through mail sales, while $109.31 was raised through special sales in booths and schools, according to Mrs. Vernon Sturm, 438 Banbury road, who directed both the 1947 and 1948 fund-raising drives.

Sales of 1948 Christmas Seals ran well ahead of the previous year in Chicago as well as in the county outside of the city. The Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County reported. A grand total of $502,360 was raised, a 14.8 per cent increase over the $437,682 netted in 1947. The nationwide goal of $20,000,000 also was met.

Funds contributed through the Seal Sale help to maintain a health center at the Village Hall and provide a generalized nursing program for the community. A tuberculin testing program was conducted in the Arlington Heights schools last September, and the mobile X-ray unit visited the community in November.

Phone rate hike not adequate for continued plant construction

W. C. Lathen, manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, expressed hope here today that the Company's service improvement program in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect will not be affected by these latest developments in its rate case before the Illinois Commerce Commission.

G. K. McCorkle, Illinois Bell president, said the Commission's order granting increased temporary rates was "completely inadequate" and "jeopardizes our immediate financing, which is the key to continued telephone plant construction."

"Keeping a telephone company on thin rations is not in the public interest. It hurts the public because it limits our ability to provide the kind of telephone service the people of Illinois want and should have. It is also opposed to the welfare of our 44,000 employees and of our telephone investors, 65,000 of whom reside in our territory."

The manager pointed out that under the Illinois Bell's service improvement program in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect, the Company is placing new cables to provide facilities for approximately 100 held orders for new service, and an addition to the present switchboard is also scheduled to provide room for those applicants now on our waiting list. In addition to the over 500 requests held for held orders for new main service, Lathen said that there are individual and two party line service.

High school guides valuable help to teachers and office

by PATTI BOYLES

"Run this pass up to 209." Special announcement—take it around to the rooms right away!" "Long distance call for Mr. Kemman!" "Message for Ellen Meyer in 112."

These are familiar phrases to the Arlington High hall guides. Anyone entering the fore portal of the high school is greeted by the smiling faces of the hall guides who are seated behind their table in the front hall.

There are two guides on duty during each of the six periods of the day to run any errands that must be run for the office. The guides on duty during first period pick up the absent slips from the different rooms. From these slips a list is made of students absent for that day.

THIS LIST is then distributed to all the teachers, along with any special announcements, by the second hour hall guides. Absentee lists are picked up again by the guides in sixth hour. Other duties of these efficient students include taking around special announcements or notices, delivering passes, and running various errands for the office. Occasionally when the office is swamped, the guides come into the office and help file.

One of the biggest duties of the guides is to greet any visitors who come into school and direct them to the office. New students are greatly aided by the guides in getting acquainted.

YOU ARE no doubt wondering who these important student guides at Arlington High are, so here you are: 1st period, Joan Dempsey, Del Wilke, and Ken Bork; 2nd period, Elaine Hagenow and Jean Simmons; 3rd period, Jane Rowles and Donna Mills; 4-1 period, Peg Koelker and Jeannine Burnier; 4-2 period, Jackie Majewski and Pat Campbell; 5th period, Jan Wieland and Jackie Ryan, and 6th period, Kay Kraybill, Orv Schaeffer and Carol Dempsey.

Not every student who wants to may become a student guide. Requirements are that they must have a free study hall; they must be passing in all their subjects; they must have a nice personality and a sense of responsibility; and they must be willing to work.

JEAN HANAUER, attendance secretary, has charge of the guides. Jean's duties also include taking care of attendance, announcements, detention slips, and the office switchboard. When Jean graduated from AHTS in 1939, she worked for five years in Chicago before starting to work at Arlington High in 1945.

At the present time Jean is a co-sponsor of the Hi C club, a young peoples' group. "Gosh, I don't know what I'd do without the hall guides!" They're terrific time-savers," exclaims Jean.

Everyone in school appreciates the hall guides and the service they do for the school. The ones this year have been an especially efficient group. Let's hope that next year we can have just as fine a group serving AHTS. More power to you, hall guides!

THE RED WHITE OF IT

by RUTH LOEFFLER

In a recent assembly, Bill Robinson, president of the senior class, presented the school with 15 new oil paintings. These paintings were the contribution of the class of '49. While selecting the pictures, the committee came across two smaller portraits which seemed appropriate for the offices of guidance director Harold Slichenmyer and Athletic Director Wallace Grace. In Mr. Slichenmyer's office hangs "The Gay Philosopher," a pompous looking tramp.

Mr. Grace's office is adorned with "The Philosopher's Heir." Principal LeRoy Knoepfel gratefully accepted the class gift on behalf of the student body. A few of the most impressive paintings are "Oriental Bowl" by Green, "A Bit of the Cape" by Waugh, "The Apple Peeler" by De Hooch, and "The Wedding Dance" by Brughel.

STUDENTS at Arlington High worked very hard to get the bond issue through. Their efforts have been well rewarded. Last Saturday, the citizens of Arlington Heights and surrounding communities, voted "yes" to the erecting of new additions to the high school. These new buildings will prove beneficial to everyone.

If conditions were not improved things would become so crowded that not much attention could be given to the individual. This tends to give the student more idle time, which is a great contributor to juvenile delinquency. That indirectly affects the welfare of the whole community. Arlington Heights need not worry now that the new buildings are to be erected. For a reward in their part of getting the issue through, Principal Knoepfel gave a free period.

A NEW COURSE is being added to the Industrial Arts program. General shop will be open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, who have had Industrial Arts. This course consists of woodwork, house repair, metal work and practical electricity. French is another new subject added to next year's curriculum.

Miss Dorothy Wilson, one of Arlington's mathematics teachers, has recently been serenaded by a radio celebrity. Bob Attacher, who has his own hillbilly program over WLS every morning at 5:30, dedicated the song "Have I Told You Lately That I Love You" to Miss Wilson.

Underclassmen will take their exams June 7 and 8. On June 10, school will be dismissed for summer vacation.

Announce examinations for West Point

Congressman Ralph E. Church, 13th District, announced that his competitive examination for all candidates for appointments to fill two vacancies for the 13th District scheduled to occur at the U. S. Military Academy in 1950 will be held under the auspices of the U. S. Civil Service Commission Monday, July 11. The examinations will be held at Barrington, Chicago, Evanston, Highland Park and Waukegan.

All candidates must be actual residents of the 13th District, of sound physical health and good moral character, and must be not less than 17 nor more than 21 years of age July 1, 1950 (or not more than 23 years of age for those who have served honorably in the armed forces of the United States not less than one year.) The 13th Congressional District is composed of the townships of Barrington, Elk Grove, Evanston, Hanover, Leyden, Maine, New Trier, Niles, Northfield, Palatine, Schaumburg, Wheeling, and that part of Norwood Park Township west of the center line of Canfield rd., in Cook county, and all of Lake county.

The applicant should designate where it would be most convenient for him to take the examination. If temporarily absent from the 13th District, he may be examined elsewhere, at points where the Civil Service Commission maintains an office or examiner, or in the armed forces under his commanding officer.

Letters of application must be postmarked before midnight, June 1, addressed to Congressman Ralph E. Church, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

"I know it. Automatic water heating is really a bargain in convenience, too. I never have to worry about turning the heater off or on, or running out of hot water in the middle of a big laundry. Remember how I always used to plan my hot water uses so there'd be sure to be enough?"

"Remember? We're still doing it! But not for long, after I tell Bob how economical it is having an automatic GAS water heater."

"You know, we've moved around so much we've had almost every kind of water heating system there is... but if we ever move again, we're going to make sure we have an automatic GAS water heater."

"I can't get over it... having all the hot water you want sounds so luxurious."

"Well, it's not a luxury any more... not when it costs only 8c a day!"

Coccidiosis of chickens is still a danger

If cecal coccidiosis strikes your young chickens each spring, now is a good time to take action to prevent the same thing from happening this year.

Dr. J. O. Alberts, University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine, says cecal coccidiosis strikes chickens most often between three and twelve weeks of age. This means that many Illinois chicken flocks are still in the danger period.

To prevent trouble from coccidiosis, plan a complete program of sanitation for your chickens, Dr. Alberts advises. Like most diseases, coccidiosis prefers damp, warm, and sunless surroundings. Keep cecal coccidiosis out of your flock by using sanitary feeders and waterers. Prevent crowding and dampness in the brooders, and raise the flock on clean yards or ranges.

CHICKENS pick up coccidia in contaminated feed and water or from the ground. The parasites multiply in the intestine and destroy its lining. Birds with the disease usually are weak, have bloody droppings and sit with eyes closed and wings drooping. If a disease strikes your flock, and you aren't sure that it is coccidiosis, take two or three birds to your veterinarian. He will check to make sure which disease is causing the trouble.

Certain sulfa drugs when correctly used, are effective in checking cecal coccidiosis, Dr. Alberts states. These sulfa drugs are handled by the Lake-Cook Farm Supply Company. But the cheapest way to fight the disease is to prevent it from striking your flock in the first place.

Group helps high school Ag. department aid community

Left to right, standing: Mrs. Franklin Wille and Franklin Wille, sec., Algonquin road; Wilmer Rohlfing, pres., Rohlfing road; Dr. H. M. Hamlin, University of Illinois professor of Agriculture Education; Mrs. Fred Busse, Mt. Prospect; J. D. Bryson, agriculture teacher
Standing: William Linneman, Algonquin road; A. H. Franzen, president of Arlington Heights National Bank; George H. Sheppard, school board representative; Fred Busse, florist of Mt. Prospect; Victor Petersen, Sr. of Wheeling, Arnold Brockmann, Wilke Road, vicepres. not in picture. (Bryson and Sheppard are not members of the council.)

This advisory council for Arlington Heights township high school vocational agriculture department was organized last October for the purpose of helping the department render the maximum service possible to the community. It was first authorized by the principal and the board of education, following which J. D. Bryson, ag. teacher did most of the preliminary work of getting the group started. The council meets once each month and now have a very ambitious program of work lined up.

With such a group as this on the job there is little danger that the department will go stale or set up an artificial course of study that would actually help very little in a practical way. The council will advise on the all day program and F.F.A. for boys, and will also help in the adult evening schools and the vocation program. It represents a cross section of various kinds of farmers and business men especially interested in agriculture.

RECENTLY the group decided to increase the membership to twelve. Members will serve three years, four retiring each year. No one will serve more than three years consecutively, a provision in the constitution which will help to rotate service, get ideas from more people of the community served by the school, and at the same time acquaint them with the agriculture department.

Organization of this group came as a result of Bryson's attending the University of Illinois last summer working toward a master's degree. He took a course under Dr. H. M. Hamlin who is the recognized authority on this movement in the United States. Under his guidance the idea is growing, and almost without exception, a strong agriculture department results wherever the council idea is given a fair chance.

High quality hay means cash in the till

If you keep cows, the point of this story is more than just hay! For next to having money in your pocket, your best bet is to have high-quality hay in the mow, believes C. S. Rhode, University of Illinois extension dairyman.

Here's his reason: High-quality hay for dairy cows cuts production costs, promotes herd health, and raises your net income.

For example, 25 pounds of good alfalfa hay has all the protein needed for about 30 pounds of 4 per cent milk. It also furnishes all the needed calcium. And next winter this good hay will be one of the best sources of carotene and vitamin D.

HIGH QUALITY hay means hay with lots of green color, fine stems, a high percentage of leaves, and a low amount of fiber or woodiness. And it will soon be time to make hay!

To make hay of high quality, here are four suggestions for you to follow: Harvest the crop at an early stage of growth; rake the hay into windrows as soon as it's wilted; cure it thoroughly in the field; and store it as soon as possible to protect it from rain.

Specialists say that the early-bloom stage is the best time to cut alfalfa and the clovers for hay. And early raking makes curing of leaves and stems more uniform.

LAW on the FARM

Insecticides

Largely insecticide application of poison dusts and sprays to crops, farm buildings and trees directs attention to the law of Illinois and of the federal government controlling the sale and use of these poisons.

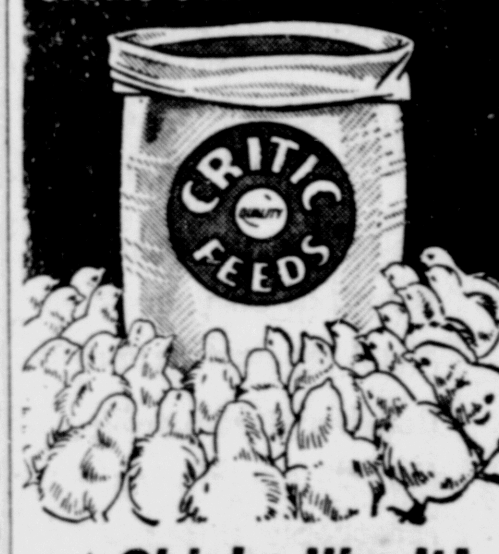

The Illinois Pharmacy Act, requiring that containers of poison sold at retail shall bear a label showing the name and place of business of the registered pharmacist from whom they were obtained, does not apply to poultry and livestock remedies or to "green" or "other" poisonous substances or mixtures of poisonous substances in unbroken packages, for insecticide purposes. There is no mention of poison for weed-killing or for fungicide or germicide purposes, but presumably the same exception exists. However, packages of insecticides must bear a label containing their name, the word "poison" and the name of at least two readily obtainable antidotes, with directions for their use.

THE CRIMINAL code of Illinois has a special section on poison requiring that if it is sold for insecticide purposes, the container shall state, "High grade, for insecticide purposes." Other information required by law must be printed on the label, including an analysis of the poisonous ingredients and minimum percentages.

The game code prohibits the use of poison in taking game. Also farmers may not legally poison game that is damaging their crops, although they may legally kill by other means any wild birds or wild animals, other than game birds or migratory game birds, when they are found damaging their property. There are no statutes defining the liability of one who uses insecticides, so the presumption is that a farmer cannot be held liable unless he is negligent in some way. Careless mixing or applications might result in liability to a neighbor, hired man, or others, if the necessary facts exist and can be proved.

THE FEDERAL Insecticides Act, administered by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in the United States Department of Agriculture, defines and prohibits the adulteration

June 10 deadline set for asking 'wheat allotments'

Owner and operators on whose farms wheat has not been seeded for in any of the years 1947, 1948, or 1949 must file written application with the County Committee by June 10, if they desire a wheat allotment for 1950. This announcement was issued today by Mr. Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the local Agricultural Conservation Committee.

"This requirement," he said, "in no way applies to farms considered under the program as regular wheat allotment farms. In other words, allotments will automatically be established on all farms for which information is on file showing wheat seeded for harvest in any of the above mentioned years."

IT IS ONLY on farms that do not fall within the above classification that an application must be placed on file by the June 10th deadline, explained the chairman. Under present regulations these farms may be considered for a new wheat farm allotment, but the acreage available for new allotments is limited by law and is exceedingly small. Therefore, applications should be made only by those producers who are sincere in their intentions to plant wheat in 1950.

Mr. Bormet also stated that previous completion of a Farm Acreage Report does not necessarily mean that an allotment will be established for the farm. He pointed out that Acreage Reports were made for quite a number of farms that will not qualify for regular allotments. In these cases application for a new wheat farm allotment is the only alternative.

Suspenders and Belts

A survey shows that 82 per cent of the men prefer belts, and 12 per cent suspenders. The belt wearers average 3.2 belts a man, while the suspender men are content with 2.5 braces each. Most men, or 67 per cent, buy their own belts, as compared to 33 per cent who receive them as gifts. Seventy-one per cent of the givers are women. Ninety per cent of the men interviewed carry wallets and 62 per cent received them as gifts.

Plan open house of breeding co-op in June

Sunday, June 5, has been reserved for North Cook County and June 19th for South Cook

County farmers to attend an Open House at the Bull Barn of the Northern Illinois Breeding

Co-Op, according to information received from John H. Brock, business manager.

So that technicians for the Co-

Op may attend the Open House with farmers from their area, breeding service will not be available on June 5 in North Cook

and June 19th for South Cook

County.

Attendance at the Open House will give Cook County farmers

an opportunity to inspect the outstanding Holstein, Guernsey,

Brown Swiss, and Jersey sires that are in service. The daughters of these sires in herds of cooperators have the highest average production as far as is known of any group of cows sired by bulls used in artificial breeding.

There will also be a program where the accomplishments of this breeding service over the past nine years will be discussed.

Farmers who have been using this service have found that their heifers show an improvement in production type and udders and have greater value as a result of this constructive breeding program.

The 31 counties being served by the Co-Op have been divided into four groups to make it easier for all farmers in attendance to get the most out of their meeting. However, if it is impossible for a Cook County farmer to attend on the date, it is suggested that he plan on attending one of the other three Sundays in June as all four Sundays have been reserved for Open House delegations.

The Bull Barn is located on Route 20 about 7 miles northwest of Elgin or 1 1/2 miles southeast of the junction of Routes 20 and 47.

Illinois farmers to get weekly bulletin

on corn borers

A modern Paul Revere warning system has been organized in Illinois to help farmers fight the destructive European corn borer.

These insects will hardly be able to make a move this summer before reports on their activity will be flashed from one end of the state to another.

George C. Decker, entomologist with the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and the State Natural History Survey, reports that field men will keep a close watch on corn borer activity throughout the state. They will make frequent reports to Urbana, and a weekly bulletin will be released to cooperating radio stations.

These reports will keep growers informed on the corn borer situation during the critical period. The weekly bulletins will also advise farmers whether in-secticides should be used and at what time.

The weekly bulletins can be heard over WLS on Tuesdays at

Journal of a Bird Watcher

by F. J. FREEMAN

June 1st (1943)—With the first of June, we have the first of the year's fledglings in our yard.

The blue jays have brought their young into the maple tree where our feeders hang and have taken possession of them driving off the cardinals and catbirds. The catbird has a nest somewhere off toward the back of the lot and dearly loves to eat at the suet stick. Whenever the blue jay catches him at it, he drives him

off. As a defense the catbird flees as though it was a fledgling flying from its nest. It flies away with half open wings and feebly fluttering flight, sinking rapidly to the ground and then just gaining the lower branches of the apple tree across the garden. There it pauses for a minute and then flies off toward its nesting area in an adult manner.

It reminds me of a puppy at the mercy of a strange dog offering as its sole defense the fact that it is only a puppy.

June 8th—As I was watching the black terns at Baker Lake flying hither and yon over the waters wheeling and turning like swallows in their search for food,

a heavy thunderstorm came up accompanied by a strong wind.

The terns which had been scattered over the area, flying in swift and erratic flight, gathered together in a loose flock and flew

Presenting the Younger Generation

Wrong number

Each time the telephone rings in the Lamac home, it's a race between Judy (left) and Mrs. Lamac to see who gets there first. In the event Judy wins and the party calling isn't her daddy, Judy hangs up saying, "Oh they just wanted Arlington Heights, Mommy, and besides, they ask too many questions, so I just hangs up."

Fortunately, a year old Judy was having lunch when we called. Only child of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lamac, 303 N. Russell, Mt. Prospect, she has blonde hair and blue eyes.

Paternal grandfather, Jerry Lamac, lives with the Lamac family. Maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. August Lischke, moved to Highland, Wis.

"All he used to do was eat and sleep. Now he acts more like a boy than a vegetable," Mrs. Dahm stated.

A happy baby, Anthony has blonde hair and prominent hazel eyes. Mrs. Anna Dahm, Oakton St., Des Plaines, is paternal grandmother.

Cars to kill 25 in state Memorial Day

10 traffic deaths and 380 serious injuries will occur through-out Cook County including Chicago over the four-day Memorial Day holiday, Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, predicts.

In Chicago a toll of seven fatalities and 266 injuries is a statistical probability based on eleven year experience record adjusted to the heaviest travel in the history of the Memorial Day holiday.

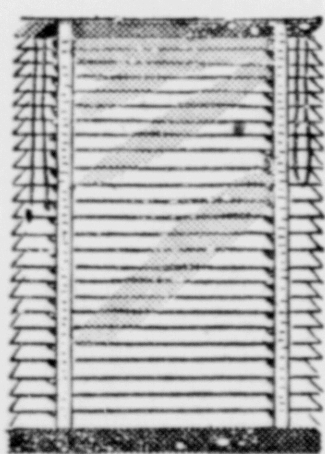

During the same holiday period 25 fatalities and 950 injuries will occur on Illinois highways. Chicago's anticipated toll of seven is less than the 40 per cent of all motor travel in Illinois normally occurring in Chicago.

2½, (third from left) was more than welcome anyway. Mrs. Hubbard prefers boys; she doesn't like to iron little girl's dresses. Allen's brothers, Carroll, 12, 7th grade, North school, and Michael, 10, 5th grade, are responsible for Allen's rapid education and curiosity. Blonde, hazel eyed Allen follows their instruction implicitly and investigates everything.

Explanation please?

Michael Teach, 3½, (right) is expecting a new sister, come

June, and is making preparations and gathering information on the care of a baby.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Teach, 108 S. George St., Mt. Prospect, Michael's mother would welcome an alibi that offers an explanation in the event blonde, blue eyed Michael is presented with a brother instead.

Michael and his dog, an English Cocker named Freckles, enjoy joining 17 children who live on the same block in playing games.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q.—Is it necessary to give a gift each time, if one is invited to several different showers in honor of the same bride-to-be?

A.—Yes; this is expedient. However, if one has already attended one or two showers, it is one's privilege to decline additional invitations.

Q.—When placing the silver on the table, should the fork prongs point upward or downward?

A.—The prongs of the forks should point upward.

Q.—What should one say when introducing two persons in a very informal meeting?

A.—It is sufficient merely to say each name with the proper inflection: "Mrs. Allen, Miss Hudson."

Q.—On what occasions is it correct for a man to wear full dress?

A.—Full dress is worn after 6 p. m. to a formal dinner, an evening wedding, a ball, the opera, or any other formal evening affair.

Q.—Who should cut the wedding cake?

A.—The bride should perform this rite, dividing the first piece with her husband.

Q.—When a person arrives at a home for a call, and finds that the person he has come to see is just leaving, but he is invited to come in, what should he do?

A.—Go in and sit down for about five minutes, then leave. But do not fidget during those five minutes. Be poised and natural.

Q.—How long should a bride wait before returning first call?

A.—Usually about two weeks.

Q.—Are silver platters of fruit appropriate centerpieces for most dinners?

A.—Yes, these are always appropriate.

Q.—When a drink is extremely hot, and a person is in a hurry, isn't it permissible to blow on the spoonful to cool it?

A.—No; this is just as improper as pouring the liquid into the saucer. All required is a little patience, and it will cool.

Q.—Why is it considered proper for the relatives of a bridegroom-elect to call on the newly-engaged girl promptly?

A.—Because she is not welcomed by the man's family until they do so.

Q.—Does a hostess always shake hands with her guests?

A.—Yes, always.

Q.—Would it be correct for a woman introducing her son-in-law to an old friend to say, "This is Dick, Mary's husband"?

A.—Yes.

Words Often Misused

Do not say "I do not talk with him more than I can help." Say, "I often than is necessary."

Do not say, "The flyer got off of his course." It is better to omit the word of.

Do not say, "We arrived safely." The adjective, not the adverb, is appropriate here. Say, "We arrived safe" (We were safe on arrival).

Do not say, "She only saw him for a minute." Say, "She saw him only for a minute."

Do not say, "Jim is not as tall as John." Say, "Jim is not so tall as John."

Memorial Day has many dates for observance in South

Out of the great struggle between the Union of the States and the Southern Confederacy has come Memorial Day — the most reverent of all American holidays.

According to research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia, Memorial Day originated in the South, when the ladies of the Confederacy brought flowers to the graves of both Union and Confederate soldiers.

Later, in 1868, General Logan, National Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, set aside May 30 for honoring those who died in the War between the States.

During the 31 years that followed General Logan's inauguration of Memorial Day, the ranks of dead comrades have swelled to include the fallen soldiers of all wars.

Although Memorial Day is a legal holiday in most of the United States and its possessions, it is not universally celebrated on May 30. Southern States, have their own days for honoring the dead. According to The World Book Encyclopedia, Memorial Day is observed on April 26 in Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi, and on May 10 in North and South Carolina. Memorial Day in Louisiana and Tennessee is June 3.
